

Learning when it really counts...

...Personal development training for apprentices.

Young people have been coming to Hollowford for over 50 years. Our apprentice programmes are designed to help the transition between school and work flow more smoothly.

With real problems to solve and real consequences. Our programmes encourage people to take on responsibility, make good decisions, build self confidence and work together productively to overcome challenges.

The outdoors is a stimulating learning environment, this combined with workshops and guided reviews make a powerful learning experience, that has long lasting effects into later life.

After all, working with others in the outdoors demands some of the most challenging and creative solutions!

- Working in a Team
- Communication Skills
- Enhanced Self-Confidence
- Problem Solving
- Planning
- Facing New Challenges.
